LASSO '79

There's a Time for the Feeling
As Good as We Can.

The Time Is Now and There's No Stopping Us.

There's a Time for the Living as High as We Can

Behind Us You Will Only See Our Dust.

So We'll Just Keep Smiling
Move Onward Every Day

Try to Keep Our Thoughts Away From Home.

On November 15, 1978, the Junior Class voted for class officers.

The class enjoyed the leadership of President Dorcella Smith who gave an enthusiastic speech on raising money for the Junior Class during the November 14 campaign assembly.

All funds were controlled and dues collected by Treasurer Tammy Harris.

Kristee Gillum, the Secretary, kept the minutes of meetings, and helped with many plans for the prom.

These class officers best depict the way the Junior Class worked during the school year.

ORGANIZATIONS

Honor Society Rewards Quality

Mr. Brian Baschnagel, wide receiver of the Chicago Bears, spoke at the induction of new members.

Students strong in scholarship, character, leadership, and service are eligible to be considered for membership in National Honor Society. Members are chosen by the faculty and then tapped in an induction assembly.

G. Hudson, R. Frazee, K. Gillum, L. Jones, and M. Phillips solemnly repeat the oath.

Student Council Acts as Student Voice

Elected by the student body in the fall, the Student Council planned several activities including Homecoming. They held an art and poetry contest during Black History month. The group gets involved in service projects like the Thanksgiving and Christmas canned goods drive and in promoting lunch room clean up. The students also act as a sounding board, fielding student grievances.

Yearbook Staff Busy

Countless hours of work went into compiling this book of memories, including the art work of Bob Braswell who generously donated his efforts.

Barbara Ferri, editor of the 1979 Lasso, worked many hours with advisor Carol Neutzling planning, composing, organizing, raising money, supervising, editing and dreaming. She was selected Journalist of the year for the second time for her yearbook efforts and for her weekly column in a local newspaper. Barb was also chosen for membership in Quill and Scroll.

Andrea Murray chats with Joe Richards, editor of the advertising section, and Michelle Berry, co-editor of the senior session.

Drama Club Active Group

The Drama Department, under the supervision of Sally Kriska, had a busy year. The three-act plays "David and Lisa" and "Five on the Black Hand Side" were presented for the public. Many other services were performed such as daily announcements and numerous assemblies.

The traditional mime makeup still allows for individuality.

Cheerleaders Named Most Spirited Squad

The cheerleaders started their year in the summer with cheerleading camp for five days at Otterbein College, where they were voted the Most Spirited Squad. Varsity cheerleader, Andrea Murray was honored by being named A.S.C.C. cheerleader of the year. The cheerleaders and their advisors Mrs. McCullough and Miss Ellis held many fund raisers which aided in sending them to camp.

They showed their sense of humor many times this year, once by challenging the football team to a caramel apple eating contest, or so the football team thought! Since they were given caramel coated onions, this turned out to be a very hot event!

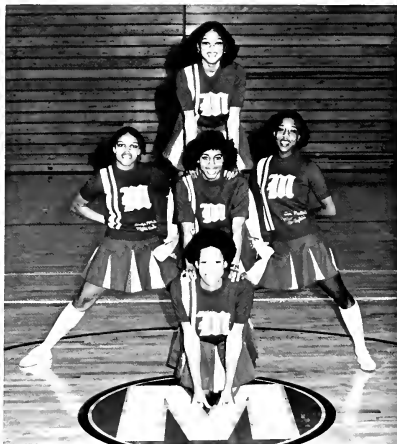

Senior Luwanna Wallace's support will be missed next year!

Treating the football team to cupcakes during homeroom may have started a new Homecoming tradition.

F.H.A. Active New Clubs

New to Mifflin this year, the Future Homemakers of America Clubs involved more than just cooking and sewing. Their activities included raffles, bake sales, guest speakers, cake decorating contests, candy and jewelry sales, a Christmas party, field trips to restaurants, and a mother-daughter banquet on Mother's Day.

Advisor Mrs. Koontz is always ready to help students like G. Warfield start new projects.

Male members such as R. Bondurant enjoy varied tasks like installing window glass.

Outstanding Punchers

Honored

Mifflin students have won recognition in various arenas including music, art, drama, sports, and academics. These students uphold the school motto of "Pride and Excellence."

Robert Sowell, Tim Spikes, Stephan Douglas, Eric Hilton, Charles McCall, and Curtis Craft all signed letters of intent early and were recipients of full tuition athletic scholarships.

Mike Williams, Barbara Ferri, and Darin Clanton won academic scholarships based on their scholastic records.

Jeff England, Dawn Lomax, Roger Henry, Sonya Clark, and Barbara Ferri were cited for outstanding science research papers submitted by their teacher Mrs. Ruth Turner.

Students Travel to Vocational Centers for Study

Offering courses of study unavailable in the traditional high school setting, the vocational centers are attended by many Mifflin students who divide their school day between the career center and the home school Mifflin.

D.E. Inventive

Distributive Education involves merchandising and these students came up with the most original money making idea of the year. They brought Santa Claus to Mifflin and other local schools. Students paid for having their pictures taken with the jolly old gent.

D.E. students eagerly check out their signs announcing the arrival of Santa Claus to Mifflin.

Monica apparently likes to lead.

C.O.E. and I.O.E. Prepare Students for Work World

Students in these office education programs all reinforce their classroom lessons with actual work experience in office jobs. Graduates then have practical knowledge to supplement their in-school studies.

SENIOR I.O.E.: K. Phillips, M. Phillips, A. Murray, M. Weaver, S. Browning, T. Massey, M. Hackett, H. Washington, C. Brady, V. Laney, Mrs. Scinto, J. Ray, and T. Brown.

SENIOR C.O.E.: J. Tyus, C. Wilder, B. Robinson, T. Revels, C. Robinson, M. Reggins, N. Jones, C. Moss, T. McKinney, A. Kotch, P. Gil-lm, K. Moore, R. Moore, C. Fisher, and Mrs. Brooks.

Work Earns Credit

Occupational Work Experience students receive credit toward graduation for supervised work experience. Each student has some type of employment overseen by his coordinator. He must log a certain number of work hours in addition to the time in his Mifflin classroom.

Maybe this is why there wasn't any girls' tennis team!

SENIOR O.W.E.: Sitting: M. Jenkins, W. Watson, C. Schaffer, P. Harding, G. Henderson, B. DeLong, C. Lindsey, M. Sanders, W. Roberts, T. Harmon, and P. DiCesare. Standing: Mr. Eppert, K. Peoples, R. Broadnax, C. Easley, J. Valentine, A. Lawrence, R. Stevenson, and D. Prince.

B.O.E. Facilities Make Simulation Possible

The Business Office Education classroom tries to simulate the work situation as much as possible. The class is taken in a single block of time with no breaks except those decided on by the coordinator. Since B.O.E. wing is physically separated from the rest of the school and contains restrooms, drinking fountain and exit door; maintaining an individual schedule is possible.

JUNIOR I.O.E. CLERICAL: Sitting: D. Peyton, V. Smith, P. Jackson, M. Welch, K. Williams, T. Kelly, and C. Little. Standing: Y. Watson, V. Greer, A. Green, A. Davidson, E. Sanders, K. Willis, M. Richardson, P. Guice, J. Sharpe, and Mrs. Boyd.

JUNIOR I.O.E. STENO: Y. Cookes, D. Bell, B. Bowen, C. Stewart, T. Farrow, J. Edwards, J. Abbington, K. Flowers, C. Sagstetter, C. Dooley, B. Edwards, R. Winton, and Mrs. Hickey.

For the first time in three years the Punchers won the season opener, freezing the Polar Bears of North High at North 12-0 with a second half offensive splurge. In the third quarter Bobby Braswell scored from one yard. In the fourth quarter Horace Jordan sprinted past the North defense for a 33 yard touchdown. Robert Sowell's three interceptions, that set a new school record, stung the Polar Bears' offense.

Senior running back Robert Sowell leads toward goal line against Beechcroft, Homecoming rival.

The Punchers' defense toughens up to stop the Beechcroft offense.

Mifflin cheerleaders await the Punchers' arrival.

All city William Roberts shares honors with Robert Sowell, all city (2nd year), all metro, and all Ohio.

OFFENSE WEARS PANTHERS DOWN

Senior running back Horace Jordan sprints toward the goal line, picking up some of the yards earning him all city honorable mention.

Lost later in the season to injury, junior running back William Smith rushes against Northland behind the blocking of senior Robert Sowell, sophomore Terry Kizer, and junior Mark Hitt.

With pass protection provided by junior Mike Thurman, junior Jeff Eaton, and senior Horace Jordan; senior quarterback Leonard Thomas leads the Punters downfield.

After accumulating a 2-1 record, the Punchers were set back four times before defeating last year's city league champs, Linden McKinley, in a come from behind thriller at Linden. After trailing at the half 14-0, the Punchers began their comeback after a series of long gainers by senior fullback William Roberts and senior running back Horace Jordan. The Punchers were able to score two quick touchdowns, the first a 10 yard toss from quarterback Leonard Thomas to sophomore Tony Diggs, and the second a 37 yard tally by Robert Sowell. With only seconds remaining, Robert Sowell drove over from the one yard line to give the Punchers their final score, an 18-14 victory.

HARRIERS ENJOY BEST YEAR EVER

This young team compiled a record of four wins in dual meets to only one loss. The Punchers under Coach Eichinger finished their season with a respectable 9th in the city meet and a 10th in the eighteen team sectional. Mike Hutchings, runner of the year, set a new Mifflin course record and finished 12th in the city and 9th in sectional competition.

Mike Hutchings, runner of the year, finished 9th in the sectional and 12th in the city meet besides setting a new Mifflin course record.

Garret Hudson, Joe Young, and Eric Bass are vocal members of the team.

JUNIORS: Henry Cornley, Mike Hutchings, Dawayne Tate, Fred Pringle, Anthony Bosley, and Everett Sanders.

Marlissa Phillips, Sharon Gallagan, and Cheryl Sagstetter served as statisticians.

SOPHOMORES: Jay Brown, Eric Shepard, Eric Crump and Butch Warfield.

GRAPPLERS GO CO-ED

This year's varsity squad was unique in having the only female, the only set of twins, and the smallest squad in the area. Still they managed an easy victory at Mifflin's first home meet against Linden McKinley and North and won several individual medals during the season.

Senior Leonard Thomas shows sophomore Teresa Funk some competitive moves.

Junior twins Kevin and Keith Williams sharpen skills on each other.

BASKETBALL TEAM DISTRICT CHAMPS

Dayton Jefferson brought Mifflin's string of post season victories to an end March 15 in a 68-56 regional match. The Punchers had won their third straight district crown by beating North Union 66-39 on March 7 and Highland 41-37 on March 9. In sectional competition the previous week, the Mifflin roundballers had eliminated Big Walnut 79-47 and Pleasant 84-50.

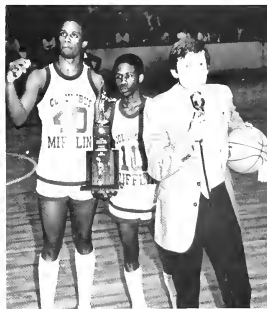

Coach Smith shows a rare smile during competition as his Punchers beat East 73-70.

SENIORS: Eric Hilton, Stephan Douglas, Tim Spikes, Chuck McCall, and Curtis Craft.

Standing under the final score, the district champions await their trophy.

For the third straight year, Punchers bring home the District Championship trophy and game ball.

The Puncher distinctive warm up drill always excites the crowd.

INDIVIDUALS HONORED

Not only did the team excel, but also several players were singled out for individual honors. Named to All City squads were Tim Spikes, Eric Hilton, Henry Cornley, Curtis Craft, Chuck McCall, and Stephan Douglas. Hilton, Spikes and Craft made All District teams and Hilton even received All State recognition.

Curtis Craft's ball handling ability helped defeat Highland and earned him All City Honorable Mention, All District AP Honorable Mention, and selection to play in the District 10 All Star Game.

Tim Spikes outleaps the Highland defense to score a basket, showing skills which led to his selection as 1st team All City, All District AP Honorable Mention, and MVP in the District 10 Coach's Game.

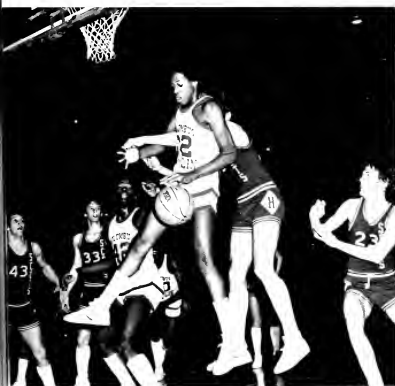

Igniting the crowd and the Puncers by stuffing the ball, Junior Henry Cornley was named 2nd team All City.

Soaring above the encircling Highland defenders, Eric Hilton demonstrates the soft touch leading to his 1st team All City, 2nd team All State UPI and AP, 1st team District AP and selection to play in the District 10 All Star Game.

ROUNDBALLERS POST 19-4 SEASON

Noted for their depth, balance, and tough defense, the Punchers tallied 7 wins to a single loss to Linden to emerge tied for first in the competitive City League North. Beating the 1979 State AAA champions, East, 73-70 was a season highlight.

Chuck McCall, All City Honorable Mention, catches as defenders flatfooted.

All City Honorable Mention Stephan Douglas retains control of the ball despite the Highland foul.

Mike Williams' board strength adds to the Puncher threat.

This one-two punch of Hank Cornley and Tim Spikes hurt East both defensively and offensively.

PUNCHERS TAKE THE STATE

Scoring more points than any other Mifflin team in state competition, the eight-qualifiers piled up 56 points, more than second and third place Elyria West (31) and Dayton Jefferson (24) combined.

SENIORS: Mike Williams, Bob Braswell, James White, Terry Harmon, Marshall Sanders, and Robert Sowell.

Head Coach Don Eppert, statistician Dorci Smith and Assistant Coach Alex Lawrence are proud of the Puncher State Championship team.

Accumulating 213.75 points during the year, senior Marshall Sanders, the 1979 State AA 120 yard High Hurdles Champion, won with a 14.2. In the state meet he also finished third in the 440 (49.6) and anchored the 1st place Mill Relay team. He holds the school record in the 440 yard dash (48.6) and was honored as 1978 AA athlete of the year of the Central District.

THINCLADS EXCEL ALL SEASON

The 1979 Track Team leaves huge footprints to follow. Among their accomplishments are winning the AA State Championship — Mifflin 56, Elyria West 31; winning the AA District Championship — Mifflin 100, Marysville 47; winning the AA Sectional Championship — Mifflin 120, Watkins 90; placing second in the City Track meet — West 104, Mifflin 83; winning the Elgin Relays setting a scoring record of 167 points; winning the Chillicothe Relays; winning the Panther Relays; scoring 10th in the Mansfield Relays; scoring in individual events in the prestigious Ohio Relays — 440 relay, 440 yard dash and 110 meter high hurdles; and winning the AA Central District Indoor Meet.

MILE RELAY TEAM: Henry Cornley, James White, Marshall Sanders, and Tom Johnson. This team was first in the AA State competition with a time of 3:22.4.

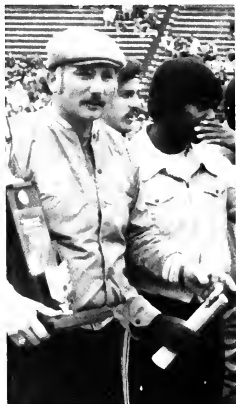

This one-two finish of James White and Henry Cornley in the 100 yard dash in the District Finals shows the Panther sprinting prowess. In the State Meet, Cornley, who has accumulated 226 points this year, ran second (9.9) and White with 166.75 points took fifth place (10.1). Both also were members of the winning state championship mile relay team. In the State Meet White also ran on the record-setting 440 yard relay team and finished 5th in the 220 yard dash. Cornley was the second fastest finisher in the state in the 440 with a time of 49.4. He holds the Mifflin record in the 220 yard dash straightaway with a time of 21.1.

This 1979 track team certainly lived up to the school motto of pride and excellence in winning the State AA Track Championship.

Hank Cornley and Marshall Sanders finish second and third in the 440.

SPEEDSTERS SWITCH DIVISIONS

Recognized statewide as a track powerhouse, Mifflin finished its last year in AA competition on top — as state champions. Classification as a AAA team next year should not prove much of a hurdle to this talented team as most of its schedule already has been against AAA teams.

Receiving their awards, the state championship mile relay team show by their clothing how cold the weather was for the state meet.

The 440 RELAY TEAM of Tom Johnson, James White, Terry Harmon and Terry Oliver holds the AA state meet record of 43.4.

Coach Eppert shows his satisfaction with his second state AA championship trophy in five years.

In earning 142.5 season point Robert Sowell spent many hours long jumping. He qualified for the state meet, but failed to place.

In the District Finals of the 300 meter low hurdles Everett Sande with 85 season points and Robert Sowell both lead the field to qualify for the state meet where Sowell finished sixth with a time of 40.9. Tripping on the final hurdle, Sowell fell far short of his school and state record time of 37.8.

8 QUALIFY IN STATE MEET

The Punchers sent eight team members to compete with the state's best. James White qualified in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, the 440 yard relay, and the mile relay. Marshall Sanders competed in the 120 yard high hurdles, the 440 yard dash, and the mile relay. Henry Cornley ran the 100 yard dash, the 440 yard dash, and the mile relay. Tom Johnson participated in both the 440 yard relay and the mile relay. Terry Harmon and Terry Oliver were members of the 440 yard relay team. Robert Sowell entered both the 300 meter low hurdles and the long jump. Everett Sanders also qualified in the 300 meter low hurdles.

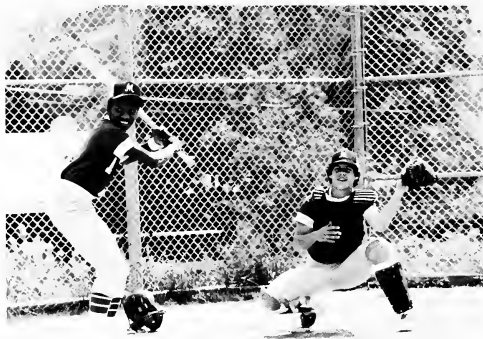

Terry Harmon hands off to Ton Johnson on the State Championship 440 relay team.

A study in concentration, Terry Harmon prepares to lead off state championship 440 yard relay in district competition. He takes his mark and gets set, ready to go at the gun.

Tom Johnson hands the baton to Henry Cornley, anchoring the state AA championship mile relay team.

INDIVIDUALS HONORED ON BASEBALL TEAM

Despite a disappointing season of only five wins, the team came together the last half of the season and played close games. Eric Shepherd became the first Mifflin baseball player to be named to the All City first team. Mark Hill, Mike Minchin and Joe Richards were honorable mention.

SPEEDSTERS EXCEL AGAIN

Known for its sprinters, Mifflin's girls' track team lived up to its reputation and competed victoriously against larger AAA teams all season.

SENIORS: C. Harmon, V. Davis, T. Brown, S. Clark, and C. Mason.

Vonnice Davis runs gun in the district meet.

Troi Brown springs out of the block in district competition.

GIRLS' TRACK TEAM FOURTH IN STATE

The 1979 Girls' Track team coached by Ken Harding captured 4th place in the AA state meet, following a third in the district meet and first in the sectional meet. They also brought home second place in the city meet.

Sonya Clark leaps out of the block to run the first leg the district championship 440 relay and later qualify the state meet.

Sometimes pain accompanies competition.

Handoffs must be practiced again and again to put together an excellent relay team. Sonya Clark, Anita Miller, Clarice Mason, and Darlene Garth ran on the state qualifying 440 relay team. Darlene also won the most improved runner award and qualified in the hurdles in the state meet.

Effective handoffs increase leads.

MASON DOUBLE CHAMP

In addition to successfully defending her state championship in the 220, Clarice Mason also finished first in the 100 yard dash, becoming the first Mifflin athlete to own two individual state titles. This senior athlete of 1979 also holds the school records in these two events and won both events in the city meet. Voted most valuable track team member, Clarice also anchored the state qualifying 440 yard relay team which finished first in the district competition.

Leading the field across the finish line, Clarice anchors the district 440 relay team.

Clarice wins her second state title ... experiences the joy of victory ... and comforts a losing opponent through the agony of defeat.

Sometimes Clarice must seem to her opponents to fly to the finish line.

This first place finish netted Clarice a state title.

SOFTBALL SQUAD FIELDS TWO ALL CITY PICKS

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENTS SELECT HOMECOM- ING QUEEN

Mifflin's annual Homecoming Assembly coordinated by Student Council on October 10, 1978 allowed the students to meet the nominees for the Homecoming Court. The sophomore and junior candidates were escorted in and seated. Then each senior candidate answered a different question asked by master of ceremonies Steve Graham.

The election the next day selected the court but the queen Anna Marie Kotch was not announced until the halftime of the Mifflin Beechcroft football game.

118 — 1: Like A. Kotch, each candidate must answer a question posed by announcer S. Graham.

118 — 2: SENIOR CANDIDATES: Row 1; A. Oldham, L. Wallace, A. Kotch. Row 2; R. Bryant, K. Williams, and A. Murray.

118 — 3: JUNIOR CANDIDATES: S. Walton, V. Greer, and D. Allen.

118 — 4: SOPHOMORE CANDIDATES: T. Taylor, T. Allen, and T. Gilliam.

118 — 5: ESCORTS AND CANDIDATES: K. Staten and T. Taylor, R. Baker and A. Murray, S. Richardson and S. Walton, L. Brown and V. Greer, L. Little and T. Gilliam, D. Prince and L. Wallace, J. Richards and A. Kotch, H. Jordan and D. Allen, J. Pace and A. Oldham, J. White and K. Williams, F. Shephard and R. Bryant, and E. Troy and T. Allen.

119 — 1: Announcer Steve Graham congratulates 1978 Homecoming Queen Anna Marie Kotch.

119 — 2: Queen Anna Marie shares the exciting moment with her escort.

ALUMNI COME BACK TO CHEER AND DISCO

Mifflin's Homecoming game and dance added some new twists on October 20. This year alumni cheerleaders returned to cheer in vain for the Punchers to defeat the Beechcroft Cougars. Representatives were present for all the years from 1972-1978.

The aftergame dance in the commons featured music from a rolling disco unit. Everyone "got the fever" and did fancy footwork in the strobe lit room.

120 — 1: These ex-cheerleaders still have their old smiles.

120 — 2: Some high kickers might suffer later but show they are still willing.

120 — 3: The variety in uniforms attests to the years represented by these Homecoming alumni cheerleaders.

121 — 1: Sophomore Tracy Allen is caught taking a spin.

121 — 2: Tony Thomas and Anita Woods surely have dance fever.

121 — 3: Ed Nelson looks ready for action.

121 — 4: Even performing mounts, these alumni show they haven't been getting older — they've been getting better.

121 — 5: R. McCoy and Lu Wanna Wallace show the onlookers some fancy footwork.

PUNCHERS REVIVE FIFTIES FUN

On Friday, October 27, 1978, Mifflin students participated in a Grease Day show inspired by the motion picture "Grease" featuring John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John. In the past the day has been known as Funky Fifties.

The Grease show participants took their acts to Veterans Memorial to perform November 22, 1978 in a charity benefit.

122-1: Kim Hamilton, Mifflin's Clark Kent, borrowed his clothes from his grandfather.

122-2: Mrs. Watkins' saddles and bobby sox fit her pony tail hairdo.

122-3: Aloma Curry and James White practice a fifties slow dance.

122-4: Cathy Armstrong, Latonda McKee and Robert Diggs find flirting hasn't changed much in twenty years.

123-1: Mark Hitt, Joe Richards, Mike Minchin, and Tim Tabor prove greased lightning can strike twice!

123-2: Lynn Freeman, Synora Cobb, Sherry Sherrill, Brenda Edwards, Michael Harris, Jatona Black, Faynel Ellison, and Rhea Banks flaunt their fifties garb.

123-3: Karen Davis, Gwen Tate, and Delores Garrett lead the cheering in typical fifties fashion.

Students Enact Screen Play

Students, under the direction of Sally Kriska, presented David and Lisa on Thursday, November 18, as the fall drama production.

Reenacting the story of two mentally disturbed adolescents are Leon Ward as David, over-protected by a dominating mother, played by Aloma Curry. Kelly Richardson is Lisa, the girl who has never known parental love and as a result has developed a split personality.

The play follows them during the period of one term at Berkley School. They have come under the sympathetic and understanding guidance of psychiatrist Alan Swinford, played by Lawrence Brown, and his staff. David and Lisa shows the exhilarating progress and depressing retrogression exhibited by the students. Carlos, the street urchin, was played by Keith Staten; the ever-romantic Kate, by Teresa Funk; and Sandra, by Terry Gilliam, unloved and unwanted by her father and step-mother.

The rest of the cast members include: Leonard Thomas as the Porter, Sheryll Crum as the Secretary, Francis Young as Mrs. Ferris, Jolene Ray as Maureen Heart, Anita Miller as Josette, Tony Thomas as Simon, Lisa Perry as Barbara, Darryl Lawson as Robert, Earl Wilson as Ben, Joe McCreary as John, Billy Harmon as Mr. Clemens, Latonda McKee as the Girl, Shelly Hill as the Woman, Leonard Thomas as the First Boy and Earl Wilson as the Second Boy.

124-1 CAST: Row 1: T. Gilliam, T. J. Funk, L. Snow, A. Miller, K. Richardson, L. Ward, Director Sally Kriska. Row 2: E. Wilson, L. McKee, T. Thomas, L. Perry. Row 3: S. Crumm, L. Thomas, J. Ray, D. Lawson, S. Hill, A. Curry, K. Staten, J. McCreary, L. Brown.

124-2: Darryl Lawson and Earl Wilson confer on David's erratic behavior.

124-3: Kelly Richardson speaks only in rhyme when controlled by her Lisa personality.

125-1: The school staff provides insight into patient's actions.

125-2: The play's climactic moment comes when Kelly Richardson and Leon Ward finally touch.

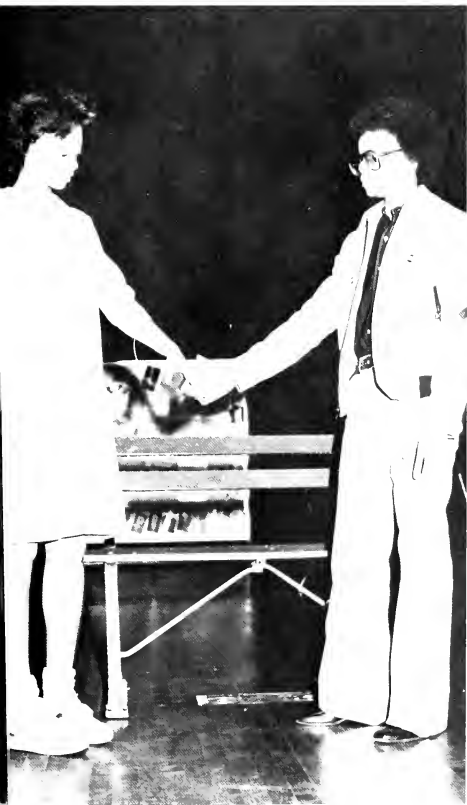

125-3: Muriel, one of Kelly Richardson's personalities, communicates only through writing.

125-4: Psychiatrist Lawrence Brown copes with Leon Ward's obsession with clocks.

STUDENTS PRESENT "SENIOR LIVE"

A show based on the "Saturday Night Live" format was presented March 27, 1979. Produced by Tim Tabor, with writers Todd Wilson and Steve Graham, the show was hosted by 1978 graduate Terry Edwards.

Several skits were enacted by the cast which included seniors Debbie Fitch, Steve Graham, Terry Harmon, Mark Hitt, Joe Richards, Tim Tabor, Leonard Thomas, James White, Todd Wilson, junior Mike Minchin and sophomore Kelly Richardson. Keith Staten, Joe McCreary, Tony Aekins, Tony Hamm and Wayne Spikes provided musical interludes.

126 — 1: Is that an editorial comment on Tim Tabor's act or does Terry Edwards have sinus trouble?

126 — 2: Blues Brothers Tim Tabor and Joe Richards sing "Soul Man."

126 — 3: Swordsman Mark Hitt shows the proper way to cut a Snickers — "no matter how you slice it ..."

126 — 4: Who's Ever Ready? James White or the battery?

127 — 1: Leonard Thomas looks quizzically at the "little cigarette" given to him by Debbie Fitch in the skit "Over-reacting."

127 — 2: Steve Graham explains to Terry Edwards how Exlax "keeps you running."

PLAY DISCUSSES CURRENT ISSUES

"Five on the Black Hand Side" by Charlie L. Russell was presented in the auditorium May 3 and May 4 under the direction of Sally Kriska.

Set in Harlem, this drama focuses on a single family facing contemporary issues and dealing with current problems.

Darrell Lawson portrayed the chauvinistic father Mr. Brooks who suffers the rebellion of his beleaguered wife played by Aloma Curry. He is additionally in conflict with Leonard Thomas as his son Gideon who refuses to fit into his father's mold and Valerie Waugh as his daughter Gail who marries Marvin, played by Tony Aekins, against her father's wishes.

Backing Mrs. Brooks are Dawn Lomax as Ruby and Tracie Allen as Stormy Monday. Upholding Mr. Brooks in his defense of old values are his other son Booker T., played by Earl Wilson, Greg Slate as Sweetmeat and Billy Harmon as Fun Loving.

Other cast members included Renita Davis as Stephanie, Michelle Thornton as Nia, David Moss as the black militant, Kelly Richardson as the Evangelist, Mike Cundiff as the first junkie, and William Bozeman as the second junkie.

128 — 1: Darrell runs his barber shop as a man's world, a sanctuary for Billy and others who resisted change.

129 — 1: In the beginning Aloma meekly pursues her wifely duties such as cooking for Valerie and Earl.

129 — 2: CAST: Row 1: R. Davis, T. Allen, L. Thomas, K. Richardson, E. Wilson, A. Curry, V. Waugh, and D. Lomax. Row 2: B. Harmon, Director S. Kriska, T. Aekins, W. Bozeman, G. Slate, M. Cundiff, D. Moss, and D. Lawson.

129 — 3: Leonard and Earl find their different life styles in conflict even before they side with opposing parents.

129 — 4: The wedding eventually ends the drama and resolves many of the conflicts.

129 — 5: Aloma becomes transformed from a second class drudge criticized by Tracie and upheld by Dawn...

129 — 6: ... into an attractive woman treated respectfully as an equal.

JUNIORS SPONSOR SPRING PROM

Throughout the year, the junior class was busy earning money and making plans for the Junior-Senior Prom, a tradition at Mifflin as old as the school.

Being the last major activity before graduation, the Prom carries a special significance for all those attending. Most retain memories of the Prom long after other events are long forgotten.

130 — 1: Feet are made for dancing; some shoes are not.

131 — 1: The decorating committee transformed the Holiday Inn.

131 — 2: A photographer was kept almost as busy as the dance floor.

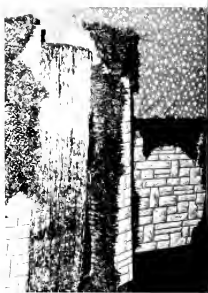

131 — 3: Frank Kelly established a romantic mood with his music selection.

131 — 4: Couples holding hands show the magic of the evening.

131 — 5: Dresses and tuxes are as varied as their wearers.

131 — 6: Most couples share moments to smile about.

131 — 7: The juniors and seniors can never think of the Holiday Inn again as just a motel.

COUPLES ENJOY SPECIAL NIGHT

The 1979 Junior Senior Prom was held at the Holiday Inn downtown on June 1 from 8:00 until Midnight.

Couples streamed in and out all evening listening to the records and patter of WVKO's Frank Kelly.

Each young lady received a single rose and a souvenir dance program upon entering.

Chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. John Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Kriska, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones.

132 — 1: Couples tried all the new dances...

132 — 2: ... and all the old steps.

132 — 3: Others enjoyed just listening to the music and people watching.

133 — 1: It was a time to be together...

133 — 2: ... to dance together...

133 — 3: ... to enjoy the company of friends...

133 — 4: ... and share the magic moments of the 1979 Junior Senior Prom.

SENIORS COMPLETE FINAL ACTIVITY

The class of 1979 graduated at Mershon Auditorium the afternoon of June 9.

The invocation and benediction were delivered by the Reverend James Frazier and William Moss represented the board of education by awarding the diplomas. The two seniors selected to speak were Aloma Curry, who spelled out the meaning of "Responsibility," and Lisa Perry, who compared life to a game of hide-and-seek in her speech "Ready or Not, Here We Come."

Organist Sharon Dixon and the Mifflin choir rendered several musical selections including "The Lord's Prayer" with Sarah Watkins as soloist and "I May Never Pass This Way Again" with Cecil Lytle as soloist.

134 — 1: The Class of 1979 assembles for their final activity together.

134 — 2: Board member William Moss receives help in awarding diplomas from Principal Paul Katterhendrich.

134 — 3: Cecil Lytle sings his last solo as a Mifflin High School student. "I May Never Pass This Way Again."

134 — 4: Singled out for introduction are class president Andrea Murray, class vice-president Dawn Lomax, class secretary April Oldham, class treasurer Michele Berry, valedictorian Barbara Ferri and salutatorian Heidi Wolfel.

135 — 1: The two graduation speakers Lisa Perry and Aloma Curry steady their nerves and their caps before the commencement exercise.

135 — 2: Parents and friends share this memorable day with the seniors.

135 — 3: The class valedictorian Barbara Ferri received many scholarships and awards.

THE CLASS OF '79 SAYS GOODBYE

The end is here, and it is time to go;
But before we leave, we want you all to know
That we thank you for the help and the care that you have given us all.

For you're part of the reason why we're standing here proud and tall.

We've worked hard and strived to get where we are.
But to reach our final goals it is yet still far.
We have dreamed twelve long years for this graduation day.

And now that it is here, we shall be on our way.
We shall keep being wise and use the knowledge that we have learned;

For to get anything out of life, it has to be earned.
And thank you to our families, who we know are the best.

We shall take our first step into the world — for this will be the test.

We have got determination in our minds and pride on our side.

And if we get knocked down, at least we can say we've tried.

But trying isn't enough. We've got to be a success.
For this class has the will, and we know that we can be the best.

Yeah, we can be like the ones who are cool and slick.
But we'll be one step ahead of them. We'll know the trick.

That's why we've got the key to success planted in our minds.

We want to be in front — not taggin' behind.
Within ourselves we have fessed and fought.
But from these experiences plenty has been taught.
We have learned how to love and how to care.

And though we may not always show it, deep down inside it's there.

We have been together for a long time and our friendships won't blow with the wind.
For there will be a time and a place where we will meet again.

Yes, it's hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
But somehow and somewhere we shall find the way.
So we'll pick up the pieces and keep our heads up high.

For now it is time for us to say goodbye.
So please take care and keep doing fine.
For we say thank you and goodbye from the class of 1979.

Karla White

136 — 1: Graduation offers some pensive moments.
136 — 2: Some feelings of elation usually bubble up too.

136 — 3: Everyone is absorbed in his own memories during the ceremony.

137 — 1: Commencement begins with the processional.

137 — 2: Finally the diplomas are awarded.

137 — 3: Each senior wonders what the future will bring.

Most of these seniors were on the newspaper staff for the first time this year. Barb Ferri, Horace Jordan, Tim Spikes, and Randy Stump were the staff veterans having been reporters as juniors.

Horace Jordan served as editor of the Innervision in 1978-1979 after having attended a workshop in Athens the summer before.

Barb Ferri wrote a weekly column for the Linden-Northland News and was the only senior selected this year as a member of Quill and Scroll.

These other seniors were staff reporters helping to put out 27 weekly issues of the Innervision.
